PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Heavenly Father, we confess to You that all too often we have tried to carry the burden of life by ourselves, only to be bruised and broken by it. We have lived as though You were not in control and have offended You by such an attitude. Instead of entering into Your rest we have exhausted ourselves with our own labors. We repent of our sin and ask for Your healing and forgiveness. Please help us take Your yoke alone upon ourselves and under it find Your peace and joy in the power of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Going Green at Second Presbyterian!

Your Facilities Committee is dedicated to being kinder to our environment since we are called to be 'good stewards of the earth.' You may have noticed ceramic mugs out for coffee on Sunday mornings. Additionally, we have a bin in the back parking lot for recycled paper; as well as baskets outside of each Sanctuary Door for so that 9:00 (early service) worshipers can replace them in the stack for use by the 11:00 service worshipers; and we have signs posted in rooms to remind us to turn off lights. Please call Jan Bailey, 577-0461, if you have comments or suggestions o "green ideas" to share.
