*CALL TO WORSHIP (selected verses from Psalm 30) Rev. Bryan A. Wilson

Leader: We will praise you, Lord! You saved us from the grave.

Everyone: We prayed to you, Lord and you healed us, saving us from death.

Leader: Your anger lasts a little while, but your kindness lasts for a lifetime.

Everyone: At night we may cry, but when morning comes, we will celebrate.

Leader: We were carefree and thought, "We'll never be shaken!"

Everyone: You, Lord, were our friend, and you made us strong as a mighty mountain.

Leader: You turned my sorrow into dancing. We thank you from our hearts.

Everyone: We will never stop singing your praises, our Lord and our God!

*HYMN 466 O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing AZMON

PRAYER OF CONFESSION Rev. Bryan A. Wilson

God, forgive our indifference to You and our infatuation with this world. God, forgive us for our shallowness: not expanding our knowledge of the Scriptures, nor developing all our talents.

God, forgive our disinterest: a lack of concern for the needs around us, for our apathy regarding the lostness of millions, and for our blindness to hurts of others.

God, forgive our dishonesty: for taking the easy way rather than the right way, for speaking one way while living in another.

God, forgive our loudness: talking when we should be listening, and for our incessant busyness when we should be still before You.

Have mercy on us, for all that we have done to displease You.

Forgive our sins, and help us to live lives that are holy and pure as Your adopted children. Amen.

SILENT PERSONAL PRAYER

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leader: Friends, believe the Good News of the Gospel. In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

The Prelude and Postlude this morning celebrate the 200th birth year of Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847), who composed much enduring sacred music. Selections from "Elijah" and "St. Paul," his famous oratorios, are often sung by our choir and soloists.
