THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

The festival of the Resurrection of the Lord (or Easter Sunday) is the center of the Christian year. On this occasion the church joyfully proclaims the good news that is at the very heart of the gospel—that Jesus Christ is risen from the dead.

It is sometimes said that every Sunday is a little Easter. Liturgical theologian Laurence Stookey suggests that it might be more appropriate to say that every Easter is a great Sunday (Calendar: Christ's Time for the Church, Abingdon Press, 1996, 158-161). Easter Sunday is the Lord's Day writ large—a great annual celebration of Christ's resurrection on the first day of the week. As such, the service should be centered around the typical and fundamental elements of Christian worship on the Lord's Day: the proclamation of the Word and the celebration of the Lord's Supper. Easter Sunday is also an especially appropriate time for the sacrament of Baptism, if not celebrated during the Easter Vigil of the previous night.

Easter Sunday is something like the keystone of an arch—the top and center stone upon which all the other stones lean and depend—both in terms of its theological significance and its relation to other events in the Christian year. Theologically speaking, the faith we claim and the life we live depend on the affirmation, celebration, and proclamation of Christ's resurrection. In a chronological sense—since Easter is a “moveable feast,” taking place on a different date each year—all the other events of the Christian year (from the Transfiguration of the Lord and Ash Wednesday through Pentecost and Trinity Sunday) pivot around the date of Easter Sunday, shifting accordingly.

For Western Christians (Catholics and Protestants) the date of Easter is the first Sunday that comes after the first full moon that occurs on or after March 21 (the Spring Equinox)—occasionally shifted to the following Sunday, when the original date happens to coincide with the Jewish Passover. This computation means that Easter always occurs sometime between March 22 and April 25, inclusive. The Eastern Churches (Greek and Russian Orthodox, e.g.) use a different set of astronomical tables based on the Julian Calendar (instead of the Gregorian), which means that Orthodox Easter generally follows the Western date by one, four, or five weeks (sometimes occurring in early May).

Christmas Joy—Sunday, December 18, 2016

This month, The Second Edition spotlights the One Great Hour of Sharing Offering that will be received at Second on Easter Sunday, March 27. A gift to One Great Hour of Sharing enables the church to share God's love with our neighbors-in-need around the world by providing relief to those affected by natural disasters, provide food to the hungry, and helping to empower the poor and oppressed.

Started in 1949, One Great Hour of Sharing is a long-standing ecumenical effort aimed at raising the funds necessary to provide relief and reconstruction for communities in the aftermath of disaster. What started as an hour-long radio appeal has evolved over the years, varying from eight to 29 participating denominations, and has become the most participated in Offering in the PC(USA).

Today, projects supported by One Great Hour of Sharing are underway in more than 100 countries.

EMAIL PRAYER NETWORK UPDATE

Second Presbyterian Church has a fairly extensive email prayer network (of 200+ email addresses) to support our church family in times of need and praise. If you're interested in being a part of this meaningful prayer ministry, please email your name and email address to BOTH our network facilitators, Mary Nell Pruitt (marynell.pruitt@gmail.com) and Mary Farmer (mmfarmer819@gmail.com). We ask participating prayer network members to keep the requests confidential unless the involved persons have asked for congregation wide prayer or it's published elsewhere.

If you have specific prayer/praise requests you'd like us to lift up, please feel free to share your specific prayer request with our prayer network so we can support your needs. We do ask people to limit the requests to close family members/friends. Also, please be sure you've cleared this with the person(s) being prayed for and you have consent for it to be distributed. Communicate your specific prayer/praise request(s) to both email addresses (marynell.pruitt@gmail.com and mmfarmer819@gmail.com). Mary Nell Pruitt and Mary Farmer are now rotating the responsibility for prayer distribution, so it's very important that your prayer request/praise is emailed to both of them. If you have questions, feel free to contact Mary Farmer by phone at 865.300.3761, or both Mary Nell and Mary via email.

For those without email, you can call the Church Office at 523.2189 to leave the prayer/praise request for the email prayer network and the Church Staff will see it gets to the email prayer network facilitators.

Please remember to contact Heath (523.2189 or admin@2ndpres.org) with prayer concerns to be listed in the weekly email and bulletin.
