On Second Thought...

Many times I feel disconnected from God. Whew! There, I said it. Now you know. I know the problem isn't with God – it's with me. After all, God promises in Scripture to always be there; to always be faithful, true, and constant. I also know that God is not a liar, that God's Word is true and can be trusted. I know this because: I have experienced this truth over and over again in my life, I know many wonderful people who have experienced this truth in their lives, and because of the Great Cloud of Witnesses who have testified to this truth throughout history. Still...the knowledge of this truth does not keep me from feeling disconnected from God at times. I am willing to wager you have felt the same on occasion. I have noticed that, for me, these times usually come when life is happening – the schedule is full, the daily grind of work and chores and errands eats away at my time, tragedy or sorrow strikes, or I just haven't carved out the time to invest in my relationship with Christ the way I know that I should. Like I said – the problem isn't with God, it's with me.

There are many different things that we can do to connect or re-connect with God. We call these Spiritual Disciplines. Because we are all different, some work better than others for us. Different ones have and have not worked for me at different times, depending upon my season of life, my mood, my motivation, or what's going on around me. But there is always one that works for me and I would like to share it with you, because my experience has been that it almost always works for every person I've ever known. The reason I think it works for most people is because it is so basic – to God and to us – and when we start with something basic in a relationship, something foundational that two people have in common, it is so much easier to connect.

The very first thing we read about God in the Bible is this: In the beginning, God created... (Genesis 1:1) This statement tells us something basic, and crucial, about the nature of God: God is a creating God. It's the first thing God wants us to know. Then we are told that God creates us in his image. This means that we, too, are by nature creative! The most basic, fundamental thing we have in common with

God is that we are both creative beings! Granted, on greatly different scales, but the essence of who we are and what we are about is the same. God creates, and so do we. God is creative, and so are we. So, I have learned that if we want to connect with God – we should be creative!

Every time I am creative, with the intention of connecting with God, it works. And this is true for everyone I've known and discussed this with. When we are being creative we are connecting with that imago Dei inside of us and with the Creative Force of the Universe that is so much greater than we are. We feel connected to something larger, infinite, full of purpose and meaning – in other words, God! I would even go so far as to say we human beings can never feel more deeply connected to God than when we are being creative.

“But Pastor Tim!” you say, “I’m not creative!” Phooey. Don’t mistake being artistic with being creative. Some people are artistic, some people are not, but everyone is creative. Think about children for a moment. Every child is creative. We encourage creativity and imagination in children, but somewhere along the way we stop doing that. We learn that we need to be responsible and serious and conform to society’s expectations. Creativity is no longer rewarded the way it once was. Perhaps the reason adults are always so amazed at the creativity of children is because we have simply forgotten how to be that way! Perhaps the reason people like Mr. Rogers and Dr. Seuss are so admired by so many adults is because they never lost touch with that childlike creativity that is buried deep inside every one of us. They represent who we long to be!

For me being creative means playing music alone or with others, being in or helping put together a theater production, writing a song or poem, or working on the book I’ve been writing for the last 15 years! But for my friends it can mean any number of things: gardening, woodworking, painting, cooking, leather craft, sewing, building a computer, photography, building models, making movies, designing things, or just engaging in play time with kids are all ways friends of mine engage their creative side. I have one friend who buys old furniture at thrift stores and then, along with her 6 year-old daughter, paints it bright colors to give to others as gifts! It can be anything you need it to be that connects you with God!

So this fall I challenge each of you to be creative! Even if you aren’t feeling disconnected from God, find time to be creative. Be childlike in your creativity! Remember when you gave your mother that unrecognizable glob of goo on paper and told her that it was a picture of her? Remember how she fussed over it and praised you and hung it up for all to see like it was the Mona Lisa? That’s the pride God has in us when we are creative! Don’t get bogged down in thinking it has to be good. This isn’t American Idol or America’s Got Talent and God isn’t Simon Cowell! God isn’t going to judge; God just wants it to be an expression of who you are. Turn off the TV, put down your handheld screen, and tune into your creative side. Invent a game and play it with your family or friends; paint something; plant a garden; write a poem; cook a gourmet meal for people you love. Create for yourself and for God. You might be surprised at how much the two of you have in common.

Grace and peace...

Pastor Tim

The Presbytery of East Tennessee cordially invites you to A Service of Installation for
Rev. Timothy A. Reynolds
as Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, Knoxville
Sunday, October 23rd
4:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary
A reception will follow in the Fellowship Hall

Sunday, October 30th is Reformation Sunday. Reformation Sunday is celebrated on the Sunday in October closest to October 31st, the anniversary of the date Martin Luther nailed his 95 Theses to the door of the church in Wittenberg in 1517, thus beginning the Protestant Reformation.

American Presbyterians usually acknowledge John Knox on this day, since American Presbyterianism can be directly traced to Knox's worship reforms in Scotland in the late 16th century. It is important to note, however, that for Presbyterians there are three phases of the Reformation that influence and inform our Tradition: Luther's reforms in Germany in the early part of the 16th century, John Calvin's reforms in Switzerland in the middle of the century, and Knox's reforms in Scotland a number of years later. Calvin was influenced by and built upon Luther's work, and Knox did the same with Calvin a generation later.

With this in mind, this year we are going to begin a three-year cycle of Reformation Sunday celebrations that acknowledges the tripod upon which our Reformed Tradition rests. On Reformation Sunday this year we are going to celebrate Martin Luther and his contribution to the Protestant Reformation. The worship service will be modeled after Luther's worship reforms and the liturgy that day will be taken from the German Reformed Church's Reformation Day celebration. This worship service will be nearly identical to what we would have experienced in a German Protestant church in the latter part of the 16th century.

In subsequent years we will celebrate Calvin and Knox, basing our worship services on their reforms and the prayers and liturgies they used. Hopefully this will be an uplifting, as well as educational, worship experience that will help us come to a deeper understanding of the richness and variety of the Reformed Tradition. We hope you join us on October 30th to celebrate this special day.

WELCOME PASTOR TIM

The Presbytery of East Tennessee at the August 20th meeting received Pastor Tim Reynolds and affirmed his call to Second Presbyterian Church. Members of SPC were in attendance and prayers were offered for the life and ministry of the church.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

A brief congregational meeting has been called for October 16th immediately following worship, to elect two at-large members to the Officer Nominating Committee.

ALL SAINTS DAY

It is a tradition here at Second Presbyterian on the Sunday closest to All Saints Day (November 1st) to read the names of those members who have joined the Great Cloud of Witnesses in the previous year. If you would like your loved one's name to be read this year, please email Sarah at reception@2ndpres.org.

Second Presbyterian Church has recently begun live streaming of the Sunday services via the internet. In order to accomplish this we are looking to create an “A-V Team” of volunteers to help run the audio and video portions of this new aspect of our worship program.

A technical knowledge of the equipment being used is not a requirement. Most of the video functions will be pre-programmed and simple to operate. Efforts are underway to simplify the operation of the sound system as well. We already have two students learning the basics of the sound system and will also be training them on the video side. What is hoped is that we can also get some adults in the program to help provide continuity and spread the workload out so that volunteers could work on a rotating schedule, ideally one Sunday per month (or more if desired!). Those interested in working with just the video or sound are encouraged to volunteer as well.

Paul Sexauer will lead the team and be present each Sunday to handle any technical issues which may arise. He will also coordinate the training for all volunteers. As mentioned, this does not require any technical background on your part, but those wishing to delve into that aspect are welcome to do so.

If you’ve been looking for a way to volunteer at 2nd, check this out! If you have any questions, contact either Paul or Dick Dodson. You’ll find Paul up in the balcony before and after every service or via email at paulsexauer@wildblue.net. Dick Dodson can be reached at rtododson52@gmail.com.

On a Musical Note....

The Rededication Recital of the Copeman Hart organ at Chapel on Hill in Oak Ridge will be Sunday, October 16, 3:00 PM. The organ was recently refurbished by James Baysinger of Organtek. Performers Brenda Goslee (our organist), Shawn White (trumpet), and Kacie Kenton (our soprano scholarship singer) will present a varied program of music for organ, voice, and trumpet by Bach, Bolcom, Rachmaninoff, Rheinberger, Vierne, and Handel as well as congregational hymns and comic songs. The recital and reception following the music are free and open to the public. The historic church is located at 85 Kentucky Avenue in Oak Ridge.

October 4

11:30 a.m.

Our program on Tuesday, October 4th, will be our own Dana Hendrix to tell us about our East Tennessee Presbytery, of which we are a vital part. We are happy to report that your free-will offering last month resulted in 66 needy folks receiving much needed eye glasses. Luncheon reservations are needed, so if you are not called, please call the church office at 523-2189 for a reservation by Friday, September 30th. We welcome all members and friends of 2nd Church!

Second Pres. Email Prayer Network

We have a fairly extensive network of members and friends who are committed to pray for people, praises, and concerns requested of us and to keep this information confidential (unless it is widely disseminated to the entire church or published publicly in some manner). Prayer requests need to be initiated by either the person involved or close family/friend with the involved person's permission and involve someone or something fairly close to the person making the request. We ask that the specific prayers/praise requests be as concise as possible. Praise or prayer requests can be made to Pastor Tim Reynolds, Visitation Minister Jan Barber, the church staff thru the office 523-2189, or to the prayer network facilitators Mary Farmer (300-3761) or Mary Nell Pruitt (300-5926). Please send emails to both facilitators Mary at mmfarmer819@gmail.com and Mary Nell at marynell.pruitt@gmail.com.

If you are interested in joining with us as a prayer intercessor, please let either Mary Nell, Mary, or the church office know and share your preferred email address. It is a gift to be able to pray for others and offer ourselves as channels of God's grace! Arrangements can be made for those without internet access to participate in praying by receiving weekly written copies of distributions. Please contact either the church or Mary Nell or Mary to let us know of your interest.

Aging with Dignity

On Monday, October 24th at 10:00 a.m. Pastor Tim will be presenting Aging with Dignity, a class designed to help people of all ages think about the practical issues of aging, especially end of life issues. One of the best ways we can serve and empower our loved ones in the future is to make important decisions when we are healthy and able to do so. We will cover topics like living wills, durable powers of attorney, who we want to make health care decisions for us when we can't, how to communicate our health care and treatment wishes to loved ones, hospice care, what we want people to know and how to tell them, and funeral wishes and planning. The class will last approximately 2 hours. If you are unable to attend the class will be offered again in the spring at a different day and time.

Maryville College Scholarship to Honor Second Presbyterian

In gratitude for the generosity this church has shown Maryville College in the past year, the Church Relations Department has named one of its scholarships The Second Presbyterian Church Knoxville Scholarship. The Office of Church relations awards scholarships to students to serve 3-5 hours per week in local congregations as a way to encourage active involvement in a worshipping community both during and after college. "The philosophy is that we need to encourage young people to be good church members in the future by getting them involved in the life of a congregation, especially one that is different from the one in which they may have been raised," said longtime friend of Second and Campus Minister Rev. Dr. Anne McKee. "This is a great way to introduce them to the different aspects of congregational life." Local congregations let the Office of Church Relations know of positions that are available and Dr. McKee places individuals in the positions she thinks will be the best fit. We are proud and honored to be recognized by Maryville College in this way!

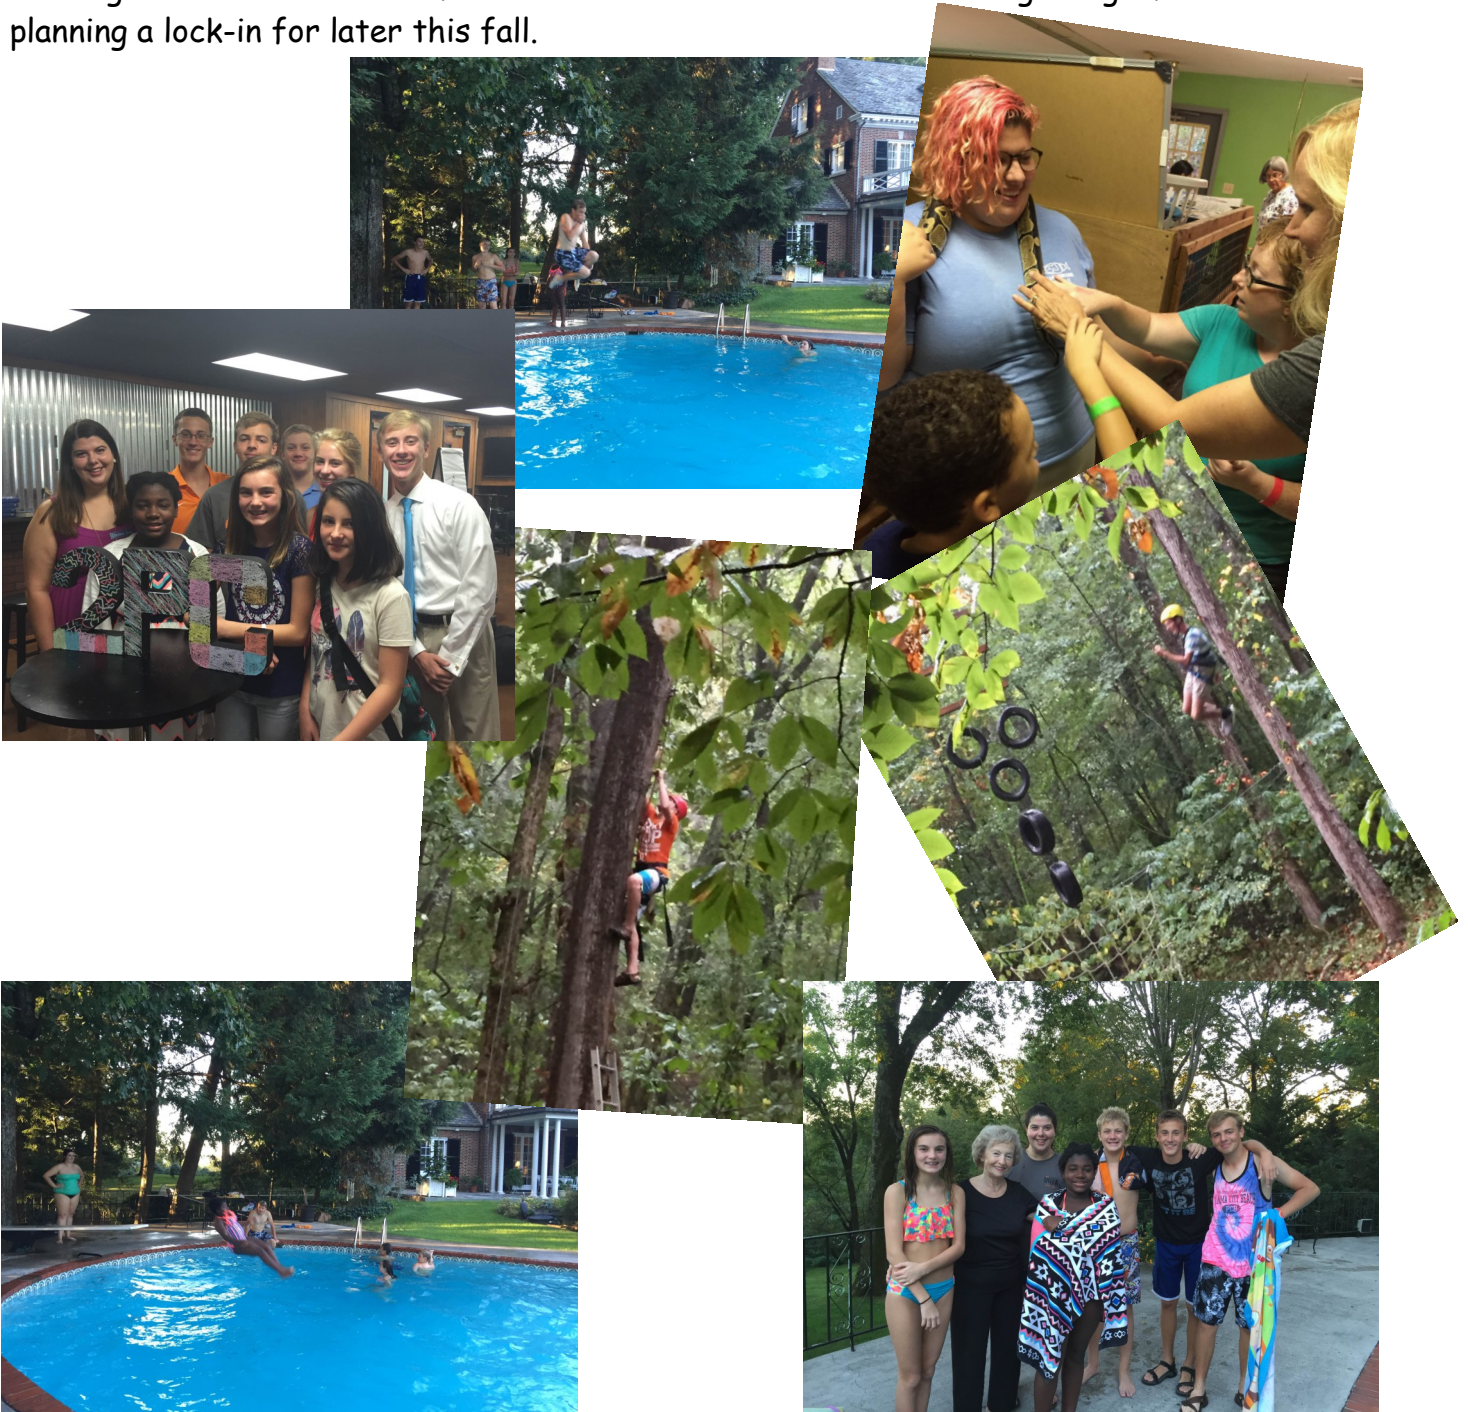

On behalf of the Session and Preschool we would like to cordially invite you to share in the celebration of the marriage of Holly Beets and Justin Grimm. Cards and remembrances may be placed in the basket on the counter in the reception area. The basket will be on the counter until October 16th.

Kim Elrod and Linda Sue Byrd

Youth Group

The youth group kicked off Wednesday night fellowship with a pool party at Betsey Bush's house. We all had a blast and want to give a big shout out to Mrs. Bush for being such a gracious host! A few of our youth also got to explore all of the activities that John Knox Center has to offer. From zip lining to petting snakes in the nature center, the rain couldn't dampen our fun at the East Tennessee Presbytery Picnic. We have a bunch of great events coming up soon. Every Wednesday night we will have a program that will fit into one of the four cornerstones of our youth group, which are fellowship, worship, growth, & service. We are also heading back to John Knox for a middle school retreat at the beginning of October and are planning a lock-in for later this fall.

Preschool of 2nd Presbyterian Happenings

Linda Sue E. Byrd has been the director of our Preschool here at 2nd for 15 years. She and her husband Todd have been married for 24 years and have two children, Leslie (16yrs old) and Lucas (10yrs old). Linda loves to knit, read and hike with her family. Her favorite age groups to work with are the older preschoolers and infants.

Holly Beets (soon to be Grimm) has been the assistant director of our Preschool here at 2nd for 18 years. She has also been the children's coordinator for Second Presbyterian Church for 13 years. Holly will soon be wed to Justin Grimm. She has two children Kylie (12yrs old) and Brayden (10 yrs old). Holly loves to spend time with her family doing projects around the house as well as quiet evenings around the fire pit. She enjoys being with the older preschoolers as well as working with the elementary age at church. Holly also enjoys getting a massage once in awhile!

PARKING FOR UT HOME GAMES

The Preschool will continue this football season to offer parking for UT Home games at 2nd Pres Church for a $10 donation to the Preschool Scholarship fund. Encourage your family and friends to park in our parking lot and support a worthy cause. The Preschool Scholarship fund is available to help individuals who need a little assistance in paying full tuition. (See article on page 12)

2nd Readers

Wednesday, October 19th, 12 noon for lunch (no need to bring anything) at Catherine Beals. Meet at the church by 11:30 if you wish to carpool.

Come hear Rev. Luis Fernando Sanmiguel share the struggles of reaching a lasting peace in Colombia.

DISCOVERY CLASS:

Are you interested in uniting with this congregation? Just want to learn more about what it means to be Presbyterian? Then our Fall Discovery Class is for you! This class will be held in the Parlor during the Sunday School hour (9:30 a.m.) beginning October 23rd and will continue for four consecutive Sundays, concluding on November 13th. Pastor Tim will lead discussions on Reformed Theology, Presbyterianism, and the history of Second Presbyterian Church. The class is open to anyone who would like to attend – current members, people wishing to join, those who are curious to find out more about us, or folks who just want to refresh their memories about Presbyterian history and theology. At the conclusion of the class folks who are not members will be given the opportunity to unite with this congregation in membership, if they so desire. A new member Sunday will be held on November 20th for all of those who wish to unite in membership with Second Presbyterian Church.

For 160 years, the Presbyterian Church has had a presence and witness in Colombia. But that presence has never been more important than it has the past 30 years. Rev. Luis Fernando Sanmiguel has worked closely with government leaders and opposing rebel forces to bring a lasting peace to his country.

Rev. Sanmiguel serves as pastor of the Community of Hope Presbyterian Church in Colombia. A peace advocate for more than 25 years, he has been involved in a variety of social justice and human rights activities, including peace talks between the Colombian government and guerilla groups such as the Revolutionary Armed Forces of Colombia (FARC-EP) and the National Liberation Army (ELN).

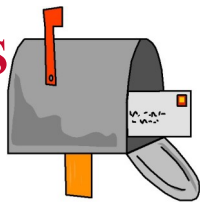

Sanmiguel's work also includes serving on the Commission for Social Oversight appointed by the Dialogue in Havana, Cuba. He also leads a peace project in the Presbytery of Uraba in Colombia and coordinates an interfaith movement in Bogota.

"I will share about the peace talks that have taken place as well as the social work of the church," said Sanmiguel. "I'm hoping my visit will strengthen ties of friendship and partnership between Colombia and PC(USA) churches. I hope it will promote evangelism and cultural exchange between our two countries, as well as different ministries of the church relating to children, youth, men and women's ministries and others."

We are once again participating in Samaritan's Purse's Operation Christmas Child, the world's largest Christmas project which brings joy and hope to needy children around the world through gift-filled shoe boxes and the Good News of God's love. Since 1993 more than 100 million shoe box gifts have been delivered to children in more than 130 countries. The National Collection Week is Nov 14-21. Start with an average-size cardboard or plastic shoebox (if you want to wrap it, cover the box and lid separately). Decide whether you will pack a box for a boy or a girl and the age range: 2-4, 5-9, or 10-14. Fill it with gifts: a toy, hygiene items, and school supplies. A suggested donation of $7 per box is requested to help cover shipping costs. Contact Mary Farmer, 525-2939, mmfarmer819@gmail.com or visit the website: www.samaritanspurse.org/occ for more information.

FROM SECOND'S MAILBOX

"We are writing to express our appreciation and gratitude for the funds you provided from the Mat Matthews Scholarship Fund to assist our family with tuition during the months of June and July, 2016. We have been overwhelmingly pleased with the care our children have received at SPC Preschool. The Preschool consistently goes above and beyond what is required and the scholarship assistance is one of many examples. Please know that your charitable giving was greatly appreciated and that it made a difference in the lives of our family."

If you would like to help families like this, you can make a tax deductible contribution to SPC Preschool, designated for the SPC Preschool Scholarship Fund. If you would like more information, please contact Linda Sue Byrd or Holly Beets at 865-523-9997.

Meals for UT's Presbyterian Student Union

The Presbyterian Women are preparing meals on the 4th Wednesday of each month for the Presbyterian Student Union. We will be feeding 30—40 students each time. If you would like to volunteer to prepare food, please call or email Ileen Cheek 247-5258 or ileencheek@hotmail.com. We will need 4 volunteers each month. You do not need to be a gourmet chef to help prepare the meals. The students are very appreciative.

*A great big thank you to all the volunteers for West View Work Day.
A special thank you to Donna Matlock for organizing the volunteers.*
