On Second Thought...

The story is told of a young priest who was meeting with his spiritual advisor early in his ministry. He confessed to his advisor that he had some difficulties with some parts of the Nicene Creed. The older priest advised him, "Recite it anyway."

The young priest obeyed and recited the Creed daily. After a few weeks he went back to his advisor and confessed that he still could not believe everything in the Creed. "Recite it anyway," was the elder priest's advice.

Several more weeks passed until, finally, the young priest could stand it no longer. Barging into his spiritual advisor's office, he shouted, "Why do you insist that I keep repeating the Creed when there are some phrases that I disagree with?!?!"

"Because," the wise elder replied, "it's not your Creed. It is the Creed of the Church. You aren't saying what you believe, you are declaring what the Church believes and that you are part of that Church, whether or not you believe every point of doctrine."

I think we, in 21st century North America, with our strong emphasis on individual rights and freedoms, sometimes lose sight of this point. So often I hear people say they don't go to church because they don't believe everything the church teaches. Or people will say they are having a hard time finding the right church because they haven't found one that agrees with them. Or congregations, and even denominations, will split because they agree on almost everything except one fine point of doctrine or particular theological stance.

From its earliest days, Christianity was comfortable with the idea that we may believe different things about, well, different things. This is why we have four Gospels that do not always agree with one another! Agreement on every doctrinal matter or theological point is not (or at least shouldn't be!) a prerequisite for being part of a Christian congregation, denomination, or even Christianity itself. My seminary professor, Walter Brueggemann, used to say, "In essentials, unity; in non-essentials, diversity." This begs the question, then, "What are the essentials?"

There are some beliefs that the Church has historically said are important; big ideas that the Church confesses as true, whether every individual in the Church does or not.

In the early days, when most people were illiterate and unable to read the Bible for themselves, the Church needed a way to teach people what these essentials were. Thus, the Apostles' Creed was formulated. It was taught to new Christians (along with the Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments) who would learn it and then recite it in front of the congregation so that everyone would know that the new Christians knew what the Church taught and believed (whether or not they believed every word of it themselves).

Starting September 22nd, we will be studying the Apostles' Creed in worship on Sunday mornings. There might be some things in there you aren't sure about. There might even be things in there that you disagree with. If you were going to write a Creed, you might write something different. But this is what the Church has said it believes and for 2,000 years Christians who have gone before us have recited it. Christians of all denominations still recite it today. It is the Church's Creed. We owe it to ourselves to learn what it means so that we can understand it, even if we don't believe it.

See you in worship!

Grace and Peace...

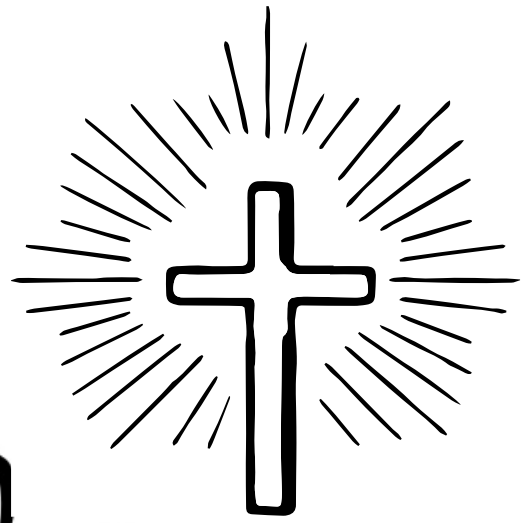

Pastor Tim

New Sermon Series Begins September 22nd!

We Believe is the title of our 8-part series which will explore what Christians believe by examining our most basic beliefs as expressed in the Apostles' Creed. Although not actually written by the apostles, the Apostles' Creed reflects the theological struggles and formulations of the first century church. In a time when most Christians were illiterate and unable to read the Bible, oral repetition of the Apostles' Creed, along with the Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments, helped preserve and transmit the faith of Western Christianity. (It played no role in Eastern Orthodoxy.) It has been a beloved and enduring touchstone for Christians and Christian churches in the 2,000 years since.

Beginning September 22nd, Pastors Tim and Sarah will spend 8 weeks taking a closer look at the Apostles' Creed section by section to see what it is really saying about what We Believe.

Sept. 22nd	We Believe... God the Father	Genesis 1:1-5

Second Sunday Worship

On Sunday, September 8th at 6:00 p.m. we will celebrate a Taizé service in the Chapel for our Second Sunday worship. Sung prayer and silence are at the heart of Taizé worship, which is contemplative in nature. There are Scripture readings, but no sermon. Come celebrate the end of summer with us as we sing our prayers to God.

Liturgist Training - Sept. 24th

The Worship and Celebration Ministry Team invites you to consider serving as a liturgist during worship. Liturgists guide the congregation through the worship experience, beginning with the Call to Worship, followed by the Prayer of Confession, the Assurance of God's Love, the Prayers of the People, a reading from the Bible, and the Prayer of Dedication following the offering. Most of the liturgy is written for you ahead of the service. Pastor Tim will hold a liturgist training at 6:00pm on Tuesday, September 24 for new volunteers, current liturgists who would like additional training, or anyone interested in finding out more about serving as a liturgist. To RSVP for the training or to find out more, contact Dana Hendrix, dhendrix@aol.com or 865-368-1450.

5th Sunday Worship - The Beatles & Bob Dylan

Following our May Second Sunday Beatles and Bob Dylan worship service, many of the folks who attended that service enjoyed it so much they requested that we do the same thing on a Sunday morning. To that end, our September 5th Sunday Worship in the Fellowship Hall on September 29th will use music by the Beatles and Bob Dylan to interpret the Word of God. The same band that was here in May will be joining us to lead us in song as we sing familiar secular songs that point us toward sacred themes. We hope you join us!

Regular Sunday School Resumes in September

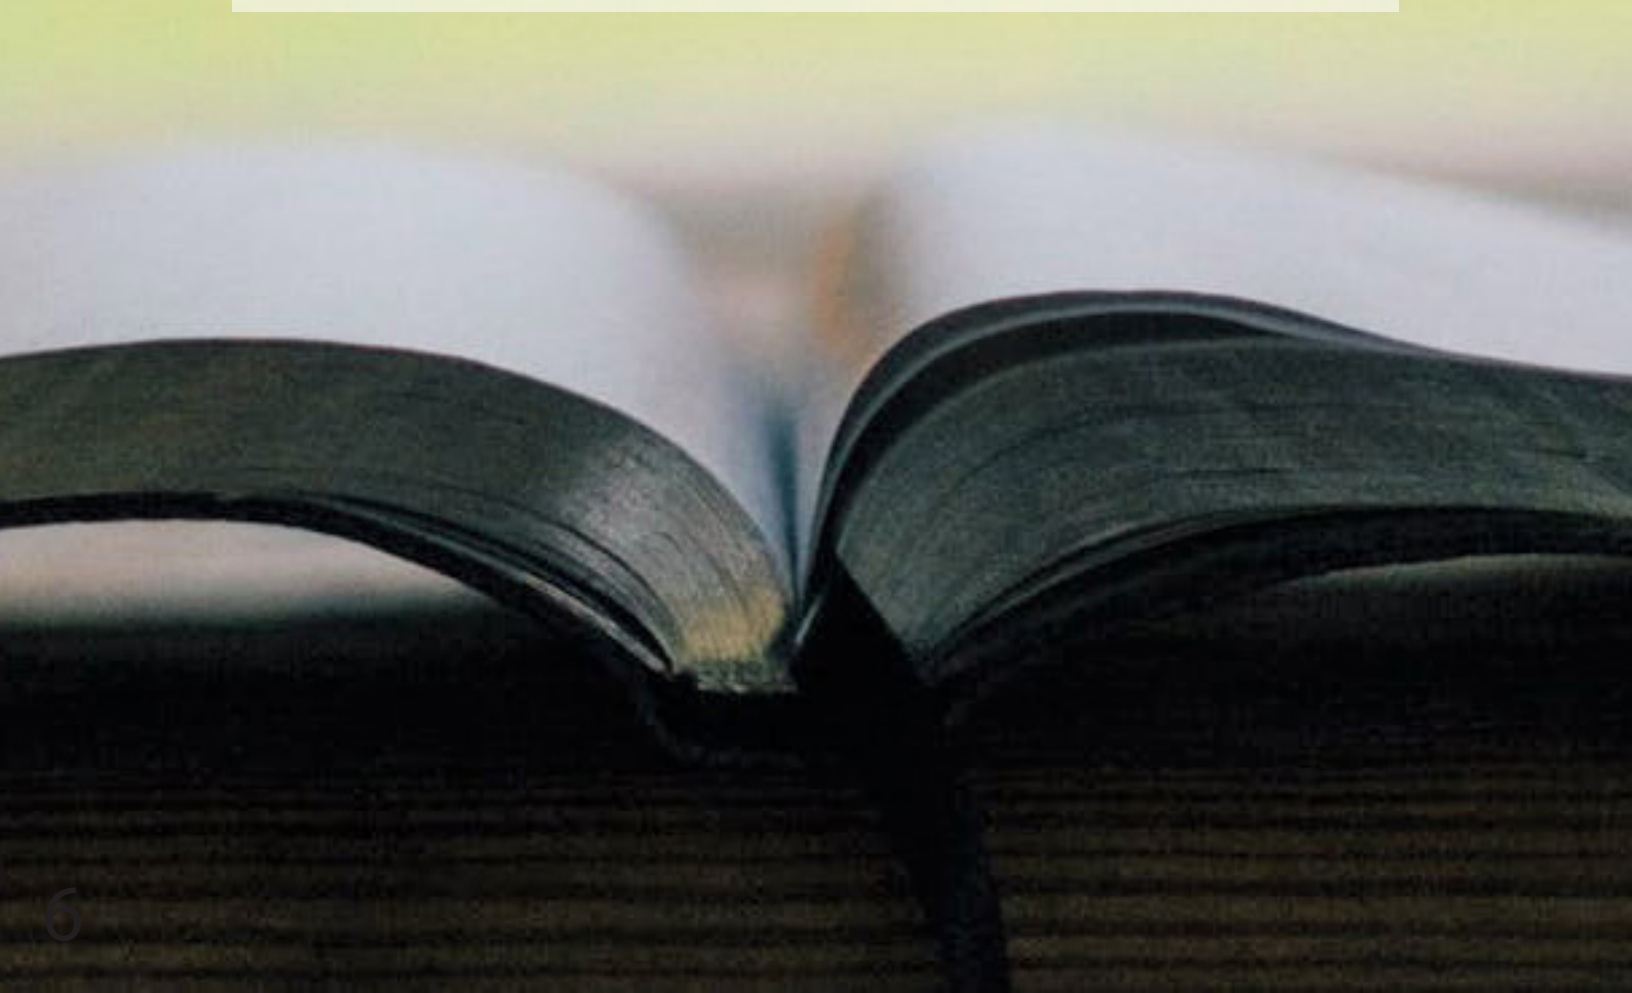

Our regular Sunday School classes will resume September 8th, after a break for Labor Day on September 1st. There are three adult classes to choose from.

Faith, Science and the Future meets in Room 206 (upstairs) and studies current events using The Wired Word, an email curriculum that examines timely news events from a faith perspective.

The Bible Discovery Class meets in the Barbour Room and uses the This Present Word curriculum to study scripture.

Pilgrim's Class meets in the Library and either chooses books on contemporary topics or books of the Bible to read and discuss together each week.

On Sunday mornings, elementary and middle school students will meet Holly in the Children's wing for their Sunday school lesson. The high school students will meet in the youth room for Waffles and The Word.

Wednesday Night Dinner and Programs Resume September

On Wednesday, September 4th, our Wednesday evening dinner and programs will resume for the fall semester. The schedule will be the same as last year. Dinner will be at 5:30 p.m. Classes and youth activities will begin at 6:05 p.m. and will last an hour.

The first Wednesday of each month will continue to be an intergenerational program similar to what we did last year. The one difference being that we will be able to eat dinner with whomever we wish, and then break into intergenerational groups after dinner. Additionally, whenever there is a 5th Wednesday in the month (we're looking at you, October), we will have an intergenerational fellowship activity, rather than a study.

On the rest of our Wednesdays we will continue to offer relevant and meaningful studies designed to help us in our spiritual growth. Throughout the year we will occasionally offer a 2nd class that will focus on a very narrow issue for a limited time, but on most Wednesdays the adults will all be together in the Fellowship Hall for the same study, while students will gather upstairs for their own time of spiritual growth and fellowship.

Wednesday Night Bible Study – The Book of Colossians

Over the last few years we have studied a lot of different things on Wednesday night – world religions, the 6 Great Ends of the Church, lessons from The Andy Griffith Show, heresies, the 7 Deadly Sins, just to name a few. Some people have pointed out, however, that we haven't really done a Bible study for our Wednesday night Bible study! While we have studied the Bible as part of these other classes, they are right that we haven't actually done a Bible study. So let's fix that!

This fall Pastor Tim will lead us in studying the book of Colossians for our Wednesday night Bible study. Often referred to as the most "Christ-focused" letter in the New Testament, this letter was written to the church in Colossae, a town on the Lycus river in the Roman province of Asia. The theme of the letter is that a Christ-centered spirituality ought not to drive Christ followers to spiritual practices and mantras in hope of transcendence, but into the heart of the world that God longs to redeem. It offers an alternative vision of reality, an alternate way of living in the world as followers of Christ. Preaching on Colossians 3 in Berlin, Germany in 1932, Dietrich Bonhoeffer said of this letter, "We Christians are not dreamers with our heads in the clouds. Our faith is not opium that keeps us content within an unjust world. Instead, and precisely because our minds are set on things above, we are that much more stubborn and purposeful in protesting injustice here on earth."

We will study Colossians section by section this fall, until we have gotten through all four chapters. We may look at some scholarly work and some biblical commentaries along the way, but for the most part our textbook will be the letter itself. So don't forget to bring your Bibles! We look forward to seeing you on Wednesday nights at 6:05 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall.

Thank You Cooking Teams!

A huge thank you to those who made our Wednesday Night Cooking Teams a success last year: Catherine Beals, Caroline Buckner, Bobbie Denton, Mary Farmer, Leslie Matthews, Fran McLean, Marty McLean, Arlys Milligan, Liz Peebles, Neal Peebles, Arleen Riley, Margaret Sullivan, Kathy Thomas, Mariann Thuesen, Kay Weaver, and Terry Weaver. If you're interested in getting involved with these teams this year, please let Sarah Morgan know.

Coupon Books for West View

Books go on sale the middle of September and Sandra Butler will have books at church on Sunday, September 15 and 22 available to all who desire to support West View. The cost is $10.00 per book, with $ 8.00 going directly to this school. For those who have already reserved books, please see Sandra in the Atrium during coffee hour or immediately following our church service. To reserve, please contact Sandra Butler: 584-4397 or sandyb446@comcast.net. Coupons expire: August 31, 2020.

September Lunch Bunch

Lunch bunch will meet Tuesday, September 3rd at 11:30 in the Fellowship Hall (back home again)! The theme for this year is "Getting to Know You." We will have SPC members or staff present our programs. Our first featured SPC member is Margie Gill, who will share some of her life story and varied career paths. This is a catered lunch by Evas for $10/person. For information on reservations please call John Reynolds (588-0085) or Mariann Thuesen (253-7653) by August 30th. All are welcome!

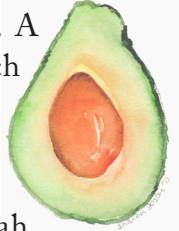

Hospice Discussion

In Honor of National Hospice Month, Second Presbyterian Knoxville will host A Frank Discussion of Hospice Care with guest speakers from UT Hospice.

Date: Nov. 9 from 8:30 am to 12 pm

Where: Second Pres. Fellowship Hall

The event is free and all are invited.
More details to follow.

Book Review - Dancing with Elephants by Jarem Sawatsly

Have you ever heard of Hunting's Disease? It is an inherited disorder that causes loss of muscle control and eventually dementia and death. The author inherited this from his mother. As he watched her suffer, he knew he had a 50% chance of testing positive. Her slow decline was painful and heart wrenching. So when Jarem learned he had indeed inherited it, he decided to celebrate. He did not want to end his life in such a negative manner as his mother. Not only has he been able to prepare for his family financially, but he chooses to

He has interviewed many experts in their own field including Patch Adams to Jon Kabat-Zen. Being mindful of where we are and being in the present moment are keys to celebrating life as we currently know it. Yearning for the past or mourning for the life we may not have rob us of being present today, of finding the joy in this current moment.

Jarem's story is tragic yet inspiring, and he continues to celebrate life and to be grateful for all that he has. I encourage anyone with a life altering dis-ease to read this book. I have a copy in my office and will be happy to loan it to interested readers.

Presbyterian Women Announces Plans for 2019-2020

The Presbyterian Women of Second Presbyterian Church will begin their 2019-2020 program year with four circles operating each month. In addition to circle activities there will be four general luncheon/special program meetings during the year where all interested church members and visitors are invited to attend. The first luncheon/program meeting will be Tuesday, September 10, at 11:00 in the Fellowship Hall, preceded by a PW Board meeting at 9:00 and the PW Bible Study at 10:00. The lunch reservation (cost $10.00) may be made by calling Mariann Thuesen.

The Bible Study Circle (led by Helen Grant, 865-693-1980) meets monthly on the second Tuesday of each month in the Mary Chambers Room at Second Church from 10:00-11:00. Visitors are always welcome. For September and October the study group will explore the first 80 years of the life of Moses, who was one of/or the most influential of God's chosen leaders in the Old Testament. The Bible Study group will examine the ancient Egyptian and Midian cultures that shaped so much of Moses' personality and formed the basis of his faith in the Hebrew God. Following this introduction, the group will study each of the Ten Commandments given to Moses—looking at each commandment from the aspect of the culture of Moses' time, the implications of it in Jesus' ministry, and the commandment's significance in our 21st century world. See bible study cover illustration on the left.

The Arts and Crafts Circle has been busy making hats for West View Elementary students, to be given at Christmas. They will be displayed on the Christmas tree in the atrium and we hope the congregation will purchase matching gloves and scarves. The circle continues to meet the third Thursday each month at 10:00, but the group has moved upstairs to room 227. This will allow us to store and have ready access to the yarn which has been generously donated by church members - thank you! If you still find washable yarn as you are cleaning out closets, we will make good use of your donations. In September and October, we will be meeting with members of the Church Décor group to create additional Chrismons for the Christmas tree in the sanctuary. We have heard some interest expressed in starting an evening knitting/crochet group. If this is something you would like to do, please leave your name and contact information with Sarah in the church office, and we will set up an organizational meeting. Contact Cheryl Ragsdale at 865-684-8999 for information about joining the group for knitting instruction and/or knitting items for the homeless and indigent. New members are always welcome - if you can't knit, we will teach you!

The Church Decorating Group (Formerly the House and Garden Circle), will also meet the third Thursday each month at 10:00. One of their planned fall activities will be the production of new Chrismon decorations for the Church's annual Christmas tree. (The original Chrismon decorations were made of styrofoam which is deteriorating). Contact Ileen Cheek at 865-247-5258 for more information.

The Mission Circle will continue its visitation of local missions. Contact Charlotte Klieman at 865-922-8453 for more information.

PW Luncheon & Patriotic Program

The Presbyterian Women are hosting a special patriotic program and luncheon on September 10th at 11:15 a.m. The program will be presented by Rochelle Clayton-Cordova and will focus on the 9/11 Flag of Honor. Lunch is catered and is $10/person. Everyone is invited to attend. Please call Mariann Thuesen for reservations at (865) 253-7653 by Thursday, September 5th.

Ladies of the Church Mark Your Calendar!

The Presbyterian Women of the Presbytery of East Tennessee is holding its regional fall spiritual retreat in Knoxville this year on Saturday, September 28 from 10-2 at Shiloh Presbyterian Church at 904 Biddle Street, 37914. The deadline for registration is September 16 at $10.00 for lunch. A special feature for this event is a workshop on olives (which served as food, fuel, and often mentioned in stories in the Old Testament and in the parables of Jesus)

More information will follow in email blasts. Our Presbyterian Women's group will be carpooling from Second Presbyterian Church to Shiloh Church for this annual retreat.

CHILDREN & YOUTH UPDATES

Here are the exciting things coming up for the children and youth of 2nd Pres! If you are an elementary school student, middle school student, or high school student, we look forward to seeing you on Sunday mornings, Wednesday evenings, and other times in between.

On the first Wednesday of each month, ALL will participate in an intergenerational program in the fellowship hall following dinner. On the remaining Wednesday evenings, elementary and middle school students will participate in a Bible study with Holly in Room 205, while the high school students have a Bible study with Sarah in the youth room.

NEW THIS YEAR...

FIRST SUNDAY FELLOWSHIP

On the first Sunday of each month, all middle and high school students are invited to come out and enjoy some fun and fellowship with one another. We'll have our kick-off event on Sunday, September 1st, from 5:00 to 7:00 – a Pizza Party at the home of Holly and Justin Grimm. Some other events to look forward to include Jump Jam, a haunted house, movie night, and skating, just to name a few.

September – Pizza Party at The Grimms'

October – Haunted House

November – Oakes Farm

December – White Elephant Gift Exchange & Cookies

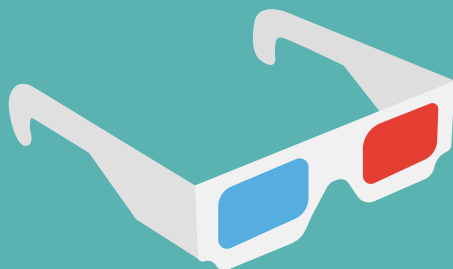

January – Jump Jam

February – Roller Skating

March – Breakout Room

April – Movie Night

May – Scavenger Hunt

CREATE A WORLD OF PEACE

Peace & Global Witness Offering
